The Village Mag Meeting

Interested in helping shape the Village Mag?

Let's meet Tuesday 7 March in the Burton Institute at 8.00pm where we might (over a glass of wine or a cup of coffee) hope to:

- Sort out enough "officers" to satisfy bank rules on cheque signatories
- Identify people willing to share
the typing
- Collect ideas for improvement
- Discuss distribution to holiday homes

Hope so — many thanks Anthea
Tel. 650480

Xmas Tree Recycling

It seems that the Christmas tree recycling collection at Bank Top was cancelled, with Christmas trees being collected with the green waste bins instead. Many of us didn't know this and left our trees at Bank Top. We are not alone in this, and many other areas also have stacks of trees awaiting collection - perhaps this is a lesson in the importance of clear and well publicised communication.

Winster PTFA 100 Club

February draw results:

- £25 - J Pellow
- £15 - J Tozer
- £5 - C Newton
- £5 - J Taylor-Usher

Thanks for your support

Contributing to the Village Mag

Copy deadline will be the 18th of each month.

If you have a computer, then you can email items to mag@winster.org. I will always send you an acknowledgment, so if you don't get one, something may have gone astray.

If you want to do anything fancy (like including a logo), then please see the notes on the Winster Website.

I am also very happy to receive handwritten or typed contributions—you can drop these in to the Post Office or to my mailbox at

Letter from John, Priest of Winster

Dear Friends,

It is now two years since Anthony left Winster with Anita and the family, and since then the diocese of Derby has been trying to decide what to do with us in Winster.

Originally we were to be linked with the rest of the Wirksworth Team Ministry but when this fell through, we thought about returning to our Mother church of Youlgreave. When this too fell through we wondered about joining the Rural Dean in Darley Dale, but Robert felt that he had enough to do without taking on any further responsibilities.

Finally it was decided to bring me out of retirement and drop me back in the saddle for a couple of years to give everyone breathing space and keep me out of mischief. I am to be made curate with Special Responsibility for the Parish of Winster. So Winster is to have her own priest after all.

The arrangement is that I am to be put on a honorarium of a £1,000 a year for two years and live in Croft House on West Bank, next to the Burton Institute. Sunday 12 March at 3pm is to be the date and time for the Licensing in St. John's and I have just received confirmation from the Bishop's Office that he is able to be with us at that date. The Service is to be followed by tea and refreshments in the Burton Institute and of course everyone is welcome to be with us and meet our new bishop who has only been with us for the past six months.

I do hope everyone will make me earn my £20 a week over the next two years. Any help I can give just ring 650310. Please keep me in touch with all the latest news, those taking into hospital, those under going operations, those who would appreciate a visit, all occasional Offices, any trouble with Baptisms, marriages just telephone 650310.

Let the Diocese see that a Priest is needed in Winster after all.

Romanian Charity Update

As many of you will know we took a car load of quilts, warm clothes, drawing materials and a computer to Bury St. Edmunds before Christmas. Unfortunately the group had difficulty in obtaining clearance for the consignment. Happily after weeks of negotiations and with the co-operation of a Leeds charity with contacts in Romania, a lorry left last week to deliver to the hospital. The patients at the hospital we support will at last have the warm clothes and quilts which they so badly needed.

Now an opportunity has arisen due to the closure of a conference centre run by nuns to obtain, for a nominal sum, items of furniture, bedding, crockery and even table-tennis tables. All items for which the hospital has a great need. So the effort now is to raise the money to fund the purchase and the transport cost.

As a contribution we plan to hold a coffee morning at the Tapestry Cafe on Saturday 22nd April. Additionally we intend to hold a Tombola at the next "Breakfast at the Burton" on Saturday 6th May. So please, if you have any items suitable for the Tombola may I have them at the Lodge.

My thanks to everyone for the wonderful response to my appeal. Our efforts were very much appreciated by people in desperate need.

Betty Dawes

Satellite TV

John Geddes

If you get your TV signal via satellite, you can watch any of the regional variants of BBC1 and BBC2.

Whilst you may not have a burning desire to watch "Spotlight South-West" in place of "East Midlands Today", there are several times each week when BBC1 Scotland (channel 941), Wales (942) or Northern Ireland (943) show programmes up to an hour earlier or later than BBC1 England — which can be useful.

The same applies to BBC2, where the regions are on channels 960, 961 and 962.

If you find your on-screen TV guide a bit slow to browse, or don't get enough information from your newspaper, there's a very neat online guide available from www.digiguide.com.

For £9 per year, you get a very clever system that gives a detailed description of every programme, and which allows you to search and highlight programmes. You could (for example) set every programme featuring David Cameron to be coloured blue, or ask for a listing of every showing of "The Sound of Music" in the next fortnight.

It takes a bit of mastering, but it is very powerful. You can try it for 30 days without charge.

Don't forget Pancake Races
2pm Main Street, Winster

Winster School

David Mitchell

Following a very thorough recruitment and interview process I am delighted to report that the Governors of Winster School have appointed Mrs Sue Tomlinson as Head Teacher with immediate effect.

Mrs Tomlinson has been acting head since September 2005 and has already made many improvements to the running of the school.

On her appointment she said "I have really enjoyed working at Winster School since September and am thrilled to have the opportunity to build on the school's success. The children are a joy to teach and I have a very good team of teachers and helpers to assist me in delivering a really excellent and enjoyable school".

We welcome Mrs Tomlinson to Winster.

David Mitchell, Chair of Governors

Winster Morris Dancers

David Mitchell

The new season approaches and we would welcome anyone that would like to join the team either as dancers, musicians, or characters. Experience is not required, just enthusiasm for taking part in an activity that has been a Winster tradition for over 150 years.

This years programme includes a trip to Germany over the May Day Bank Holiday, an invitation to the Bampton Festival on May 29th, and National Trust celebrations in Dovedale and Winster on July 16th.

Practices start in the Burton Institute on Thursday March 2nd at 8.00 pm and continue every Thursday evening through to the end of June.

Come along any Thursday evening to join us or for more info in advance phone Alun Thomas on 650224 or David Mitchell on 650220.

Recycle your Yellow Pages

You can recycle your Yellow Pages at Winster Post Office.

I will take them to the school where I teach in Chesterfield, which participates in the 'Yellow Woods' Challenge. The directories are used to make loft insulation, animal bedding, cardboard, etc, instead of going to landfill. The school gets a small amount of money in return, and the children get to learn about recycling and reducing waste. More information at www.yellow-woods.co.uk.

The scheme runs until the 28th March 2006. No 'normal' telephone directories or 2006 Yellow Pages please; these can be put out for your kerbside paper collection.

Thank you for your support, and thanks to Caz at the Post Office for agreeing to be the collecting point again. Alison Gray

Village Shop

Steve Flitter

'Fair Trade Fortnight' runs from March 6th to 19th, and we will have a wide range of fair trade products (coffees, teas, chocolates and various gift lines) as well as our usual Suma range of products. Do please support us.

Maycocks of Holloway have a range of ready made pies and other meat dishes 'home made' by Mrs Maycock, and these are now in stock in our shop. They will initially be in the freezer cabinets but once we know 'demand' they will be fresh in the chiller at weekends.

Our holiday-home leaflets are now available, with an order form on the back. We will try to deliver to all holiday homes but ideally they should be sent out to visitors in advance — so if you would like a stock of leaflets for your guests please ask at the shop.

We hope you like our spring flowers that are now in stock. They brighten up the home as the days get longer (and hopefully warmer).

Steve Flitter

Fund raising

Thank you to those people who have helped and are still helping to raise money for the trip.

Nativity Play

The school put on an excellent Christmas Nativity beautifully staged in Church. With Mary and Joseph on stage the traditional story was told once again by the well-read juniors. Of course we always have a twist so it was no surprise when Cinderella and her ugly sisters appeared, or even the postman delivering Christmas mail. Congratulations to all who helped it was excellent.

Book Week

Book Week was great fun a display of books each evening after class. Every day pester power prevailed - "Please Mum, Please". It was hard to keep to just one book as the selection was immense and I am sure everyone found something they really liked. The children competed in competitions for the best bookmark, best book poster and the crème de la crème was the fancy dress competition. Most children dressed up as their favourite character from a book, took the book to school and told us about. A most daunting task as school was open to the public but again they captivated their audience even the reception children. Poor Mrs Greatorex and Miss Kemble were the judges - a job no one was envious off!

School was desperately short of new books so children were given Sponsor a Book forms to give to family and friends. What a huge success with books totalling £150.00 going to the library, not only chosen by you but with your name inside and to be enjoyed by generations to come.

Children in Need

Annual Children in Need was supported by having a non uniform day. The children thought this was a really cool idea and came with shiny coins totalling £40.00. Lucy Harrison made a huge amount of special Pudsey Bear biscuits, took them to school and sold them to her friends and teachers. Lucy raised £17.00.

Rags for Riches

More recently we have had Rags for Riches which involved thankfully most of the village. Most of us donated clothes, curtains, cuddly toys etc, which will be given to the needy directly in third world countries. Our rags were in abundance and we are now £180 richer.

School Council

Now down to politics! School very tense - election time. You may wonder - what at school, but yes a new council was elected. Candidate's children elected for by children. I am sure there was some disappointment but also some relief.

The New School Council is: -

Rachel Wood
Jason Armit
Tavier Fairburn
Felix Higgins
Ben Harrison

William Webster
Sarah Webster
Joshua Wood
Jack Harrison
Fern Ingham

Kate Worthington

Other News

Supporting the local community Entovens have generously given the school a donation of £150.00 towards the book appeal. A very kind gesture and greatly appreciated. Thank You.

Annual pancake race 28th February once again the children will be racing.

One hundred years ago Winster Market House became the first National Trust building in the Peak District National Park and the children will be taking part in a photo shoot at the market house dressed in Victorian costume. This will be on 21st March.

Winster Primary School would like to say a huge thank you to the many people who have supported or given generously to the school over the last few months. We can not tell you how much your support means.

THANK YOU - THANK YOU - THANK YOU

Green Corner

DRINK UP!

For those of you who think being green necessarily involves extra effort and grief, read on ...

Cork has been used to close wine bottles for over 3,000 years. The Portuguese cork forests are one of the most successful examples of sustainable agroforestry anywhere in the world, and Portugal produces more than half the world's corks for bottles.

Not only is cork itself recyclable, biodegradable and renewable, the cork forests provide valuable habitat for birds and other animals and contribute to a mixed agarian economy that has sustained farmers for many centuries. The cork oak, which is well suited to the hot, arid conditions of southern Portugal, helps protect the soil from becoming desert, and is home to many species, including the wild boar and rare birds such as the black stork, not to mention the Egyptian mongoose. Portugal's cork forests are a protected resource, subject to a code of good practice to ensure sustainability of production. Indeed, the mature tree may only be harvested for its bark once every nine years and then only when the tree is healthy. Nothing is wasted. So altogether cork production is good for everyone: the environment, the local economy, and us wine drinkers.

Plastic stoppers are a by-product of the petroleum industry. Their manufacture requires a large input of energy and creates pollution. They are not biodegradable, and currently there are few if any recycling facilities for them.

Bit of a no-brainer, isn't it?

Recycling cork? Well, here in the UK we haven't really got our act together yet, unlike other countries. But there's no reason why you can't recycle your own corks. Some suggestions:

Can be composted (but do take a long time to break down)

Can be recycled into home made pin-boards

Put them in the bottom of flowerpots, where they will soak up water and release it back slowly to your plants

As a fly deterrent on your hat, a la Crocodile Dundee

And, if you can't recycle them, at least enjoy supporting the Portuguese cork forests as you raise your glass!

But brother Maurice has just been released. He may seem like a harmless eccentric but he has the power to take control of her life and crash-land it. Soon it's not just her peace that's threatened but also her home - and maybe even her freedom.

Part family drama, part psychological thriller, but with much humour along the way, Modelling Spitfires will take you on an emotional loop-the-loop through a skyscape of mental illness, family feuds and late-flowering romance.
